DECISION IN GOLD APPEAL S WITHHELD

Federal Judge Delays Action Indefinitely on Request to Transfer Accused to New York

PROBING BACKGROUND

Philadelphia, June 12—(P)—Federal Judge James P. McGranery today delayed action for an indefinite time on the government's request to transfer Harry Gold, accused of delivering U. S. atomic secrets to Russia, from Philadelphia to New York where he would have been brought to immediate trial.

The judge, who originally issued the warrant that resulted in the arrest of the 39-year-old Philadelphia chemist, granted request of defense counsel to "investigate the background and character of Gold in the city where he lives."

John D. M. Hamilton, former chairman of the Republican National committee and Gold's court-appointed attorney, said "I don't think it is asking too much that I might be given the opportunity to further examine Gold in this jurisdiction."

The original complaint was filed here.

McGranery, in accepting Hamilton's plea, ordered that Gold be continued in $100,000 bail until "I shall act on disposition of the removal warrant." Gold has been lodged in Moyamensing prison since May 23.

The judge told Hamilton that "the court is well aware that you have assumed to the burden of defense at my request. One of the reasons I appointed you was your well-known patriotism that is beyond reproach."

"And your position at this time is such that no one would question (Turn to Page Five)

Four Lose Lives In Spillway Accident on the Allegheny River In Pittsburgh Area

Pittsburgh, June 12—(P)—The raging waters of an Allegheny river spillway took four lives yesterday but rivermen who refused to quit rescue efforts in the face of terrific odds pulled four others to safety.

One riverman, 50-year old Hull Wright, died a hero.

He tried desperately to save six persons who rode over a 11-foot dam in a 25-foot cabin cruiser 15 miles northeast of Pittsburgh.

The four who survived a night of horror were battered and beaten.

They clung to the cruiser as it bobbed in the foaming, swirling spillway. For seven hours they watched scores of rescue attempts fail.

A blimp, a seaplane and even men in a rowboat tried to reach them.

Just as it seemed their cruiser would capsize, they were pulled to safety by the volunteer crew of a small river towboat piloted by a veteran skipper who willingly took his chance with fate. He won his gamble and lost his boat as it overturned in the maelstrom.

There were six on the cruiser when it missed a lock and went over the dam.

Wright and his boss, Veteran Lockmaster James Woffenden, went to their rescue in an 18-foot skiff.

The small craft was smashed to pieces and Woffenden and Wright jumped to the cruiser.

Then, one by one, the four who perished began going overboard.

Authorities listed the lost, in addition to Wright, as: Mrs. William Fisher, 29; Mrs. Carol Kreig, about 30, wife of one of the rescued, and William Lahey, Jr., about 25.

The rescued were Woffenden, James McHugh, 24, owner of the cruiser; Charles Reiley, 34, and Jack Kreig, 28.

All but McHugh and Lahey were residents of the Pittsburgh area.

Nashville, Tenn., June 12—(P)—An inboard cruiser, its motor dead, was swept over a 12-foot dam on the Cumberland river yesterday, but the three men aboard escaped with their lives.

Sam Silverman, 40, said "I thought my number was up" when fast water dashed the 16-foot cruiser over the dam and threw them out.

Two young men in a boat rescued the three, including 70-year-old Sol Corensweat who is partly paralyzed and wears leg braces.

MILK SUPPLY STILL HALTED BY WALKOUT

Pittsburgh, June 12—(P)—Representatives of striking dairy workers and their employers will try again today to bring an end to the walkout that has shut off the milk supply of 2,300,000 persons in western Pennsylvania.

The strike was called by members of the AFL-Dairy Workers Union began last Friday against firms belonging to the Greater Pittsburgh Milk Dealers Association.

A number of contracts are involved, the Association said. The drivers are seeking a 40-hour week instead of the present 48-hour week at the same rate of pay. The drivers also are asking for a raise in the daily guarantee from $10 to $13.50. The dealers offered $11.

A six-hour conference yesterday failed to bring a settlement but negotiators said they would meet again today. The association again advanced arbitration as a solution but the union declined.

The Allegheny County Medical Society said the number of trucks delivering milk to hospitals and other vital spots had tripled yesterday over Saturday.

Seven counties, including populous Allegheny (Pittsburgh) county, are affected by the strike.

Meanwhile, in Pittsburgh, three men were arrested and 140 cases of milk seized in what Police Lieutenant Arch Morrone called the first attempt to "bootleg" milk.

Morrone said the men, charged with selling milk without a license, told him they bought the milk in Ohio. He added that they were trying to dispose of the milk for 35 cents a quart.

Morrone said the men agreed to turn over the milk to Pittsburgh institutions.

R. K. Edgar, president of the Keystone Milk Dealers Association, said western Pennsylvania farmers are angry. He said "farmers get about 3 1/2 cents of every dollar paid for milk, the remainder going to wholesalers and retailers and their employees."

Four Automobile Accidents Probed By Police Department Over the Weekend

Four automobile accidents highlighted police activities over the week end with one pedestrian injured and property damage estimated at over $500.

Friday evening at 7:50 o'clock, cars operated by Richard A. Lesser, Warren RD 1, and M. A. Nelson, 107 Lincoln avenue, collided at Market and Fifth when Nelson, proceeding south on Market street, attempted a left turn in front of the Lesser car proceeding north. Damage was estimated at $100.

At 10:30 p. m. Friday, a car owned by Harold Giegerich, 208 Third avenue, was damaged to an estimated $175 on Chestnut street when John J. Chmel, 13 Swiss street, backed out of a parking space into the side of the Giegerich car. There were no injuries.

At 12:30 a. m. Saturday, John C. Anderson, 10 Jackson avenue, sustained lacerations of the left eyebrow and brush burns on the lower leg, when he walked into a car operated by Maynard DeVore. Jackson street extension, while crossing Pennsylvania avenue near the Millrace bridge. When DeVore stopped suddenly, his car was struck in the rear by another car operated by Vincent C. Frederick, 204 Onondaga avenue. Damage to DeVore's car was estimated at $10, and to the Frederick car about $100.

Sunday morning, at 11:25 o'clock, cars operated by William Watson, 1209 1/2 Pennsylvania avenue, east, and R. L. Tucker, 151 1/2 Myrtle street, collided near Park street with $125 damage as the result. There were no injuries.

An out-of-town potato peddler, picked up by police on Friday, was told to get a license or leave town. He left town.

Friday evening, police were called to West Third avenue to extradicate a dog from a hole into which he had fallen. Spectators had the dog out before officers arrived.

Also on Friday, police quelled a brother-sister battle on Water street and pacified another at a local hotel.

Early Saturday morning, a drunk, who had fallen asleep on a necessary piece of restroom equipment in a local restaurant, was taken to the city clinic and seated on a duplicate to spend the night.

Another drunk wandered into Warren General Hospital early Saturday morning and created a disturbance. He was also quelled. A third was picked up near the South Street school.

KEY FIGURE IS SUMMONED TO TESTIFY

Senate Inquiry Committee Awaits Excerpts From Papers of Secretary Forrestal

PREVIOUSLY PAID FINE

Washington, June 12—(P)—Senators hunting jigsaw pieces in the 1945 Amerasia case turned to Philip Jaffe today for more of the picture in the secret document episode.

Jaffe, subpoenaed to a closed session of a senate foreign relations subcommittee, is a key figure in the five-year old controversy.

He was editor of the now-defunct Amerasia magazine, in the New York headquarters of which were found hundreds of confidential government papers.

Jaffe and five others—three of them government employees—were arrested on charges of conspiracy to commit espionage. The charges later were reduced to conspiracy to obtain illegal possession of federal documents.

Jaffe pleaded guilty and was fined $2,500. One of the others pleaded no defense and paid a $500 fine. Charges against the other four were dropped.

Why what happened; why there was no jail sentences; why the charges were reduced—all those points stirred up a controversy in congress and brought a cry of "whitewash" from some legislators.

Justice Department officials have said their case practically collapsed when one of the defendants learned that the government's evidence was obtained without search warrants.

The senate inquiry committee trying to find the answers summoned Jaffe as it awaited certain excerpts from the personal papers of the late James V. Forrestal, who was secretary of the navy when the Amerasia case broke.

The Justice Department confirmed Saturday that Forrestal intervened to postpone the six arrests until President Truman could be fully informed. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover told the Milwaukee Sentinel yesterday: "At no time did Forrestal ever indicate a desire to have the Amerasia case held up or stopped. x x x All Forrestal asked was that the president be advised of the facts in the case before the arrests were made."

The Justice Department made public notes from Forrestal's diary which disclosed he felt the arrests might "greatly embarrass" this country's relations with Russia at the 1945 United Nations charter conference in San Francisco.

Jupiter Pluvius Helps to Give County Scouts Severe Test of Camping Ability

Jupiter Pluvius and the Boy Scout Camporee have again gotten together for a good test of the camping ability of the Scouts.

The Camporee held at Hearts Content, Camping area last Friday and Saturday was not rained out but the entire program except the Court of Honor had to be cancelled because of the rain. Chief Observer S. Knox Harper complimented the Scouts on the fine job of camping under adverse conditions. Some of the Scouts were not as well prepared as they might have been but will value the experience and perhaps be better equipped for the next overnight hike.

Over 140 men and boys took part in the activity. The Troops taking part in the Camporee included Trinity Memorial Church Troop 1, Grace Methodist Church Troop 2, Elks Club Troop 5, Optimist Troop 6, First Methodist Church Troop 9, Lacy FTA Troop 11, Youngville Evangelical United Brethren Church Troop 31, Ludlow Citizens Troop 50 and First Lutheran Church Troop 12. The Explorers of Post 12 served as messengers and two of the boys cooked for the Observers and directors of the Camporee.

Saturday morning the camp took a walk in the rain down through the virgin forest area. Because of the rain the project of cleaning up the camping area of the fallen limbs left by the ice storm, was not completed. The only planned activity that was carried out was the Court of Honor on Saturday afternoon. The following men took part in the Court of Honor. Frank Parker, master of ceremonies; William L. Wehner presented the First and Second Class badges; Council President Carl E. Whipple, Star and Life ranks; H. L. Banghart, Eagle Badge. Brackett Ayers, member of the Council Executive Board presented the 40th Anniversary Crusade awards. S. Knox Harper, Chief Observer of the Camporee presented the Scoutmaster emblems to the Scoutmasters for the Scouts. It was announced during the Court of Honor that Scout Dennis Johnson had died. The Scouts bowed their heads in reverence honoring their brother Scout.

The Crusade awards that were awarded follows: First Award, (Turn to Page Five)

Several Changes In Teaching Staffs Of Elementary Schools Are Announced

The opening of the fall term of school in September will bring several changes in teaching staffs of the five elementary schools of the borough, according to announcement made by Dr. Carl E. Whipple, superintendent.

Miss Grace Bell, who received her degree from Edinboro State Teachers College in 1947 and taught at Johnson building before being transferred to Seneca, will become principal of the latter school.

At East street, the principal will be Miss Frances Grosch, who has been teaching there since returning from Red Cross service during the war. She received her degree from Columbia University in 1942.

Miss Viola Flowers will become principal of Johnson school having taught there for a number of years and having served as principal during the past year when Miss Ida McKinney was absent because of injuries received in an automobile accident. Miss Flowers earned her degree from Pennsylvania State College in 1938.

Due to recent additions made through erection of an annex, there will be seven teachers at the Home Street building and Miss Dorothy Lincoln has been asked to take the principal's post. Miss Lincoln received her baccalaureate degree from Edinboro State Teachers College in 1930 and her master's from New York University in 1948.

Miss Veura Schuler, who came to Warren from Bradford in 1948, will succeed Miss Lincoln as principal at McClintock. She holds a bachelor's degree, 1946, from Edinboro State Teachers College.

Teachers who are assuming the duties of principal for the first time in September have planned to do advanced study during the summer. Since there are often questions parents like to refer to the principals during the summer, changes effective in the fall are being announced at this time, Mr. Whipple said.

Two elementary schools will continue under the guidance of the same principals. Miss Edith Anderson at Lacy and Miss Berkman at South street.

Four Autoists From Jamestown Injured In One-Car Accident

Four Jamestown men were brought to Warren General Hospital Saturday evening and three of them admitted following a one-car accident on the Corydon-Owensville road just over the line in New York state. They were Richard Knott, Glenn Ingerson, Alonzo Casler and Howard Knott.

Witnesses said their car rolled over four times before coming to a stop. Howard Knott was given emergency treatment for lacerations to the forehead and back of his head, and contusions of the right shoulder and leg. He was discharged following treatment.

Alonzo Casler, one of those admitted, is suffering from a possible fracture of the right shoulder and cervical vertebrae, and an injury to the left knee. His condition is reported as good.

Ingerson sustained extensive lacerations of the right side of the scalp and multiple lacerations of the face and head as well as abrasions about the body. His condition is listed as fair.

Richard Knott sustained five broken ribs, multiple lacerations of the left arm and head, a puncture wound on the right side of the back and brush burns. His condition is also listed as fair.

The car in which they were riding was damaged almost beyond repair, witnesses said.

BLIND AND DEAF BOY COLLEGE GRADUATE

New York, June 12—(P)—Totally blind and deaf, Robert J. Smithdas, 25, newly graduated with honors from St. John's University in Brooklyn, looked forward today to his next objective—a lecture tour and graduate work at the University of Michigan.

Smithdas "saw and heard" his commencement exercises yesterday through the eyes and ears of his college pal, John Spanier, 22, his constant companion for four years.

Smithdas lost his sight and hearing at the age of six as the result of spinal meningitis.

Truman Warning About Russia Spurs Officials to Ready U. S. Defenses

Washington, June 12—(P)—President Truman's assertion that Russia is preparing for war stepped up congressional efforts today to get this nation's defenses ready for any crisis.

At the same time, however, two Republican senators suggested that Mr. Truman's lunt talk about Soviet intentions abroad may be aimed in part at minimizing public attention to the Communists-in-government charges of Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) and others.

GOP Senators Wherry of Nebraska and Brewster of Maine said they don't disagree with the president's Saturday statement in St. Louis that the Soviets "have preached peace—but devoted their energies to fomenting aggression and preparing for war."

But Wherry, the Senate Republican leader, noted that the president had nothing to say about subversive activity at home.

"It is just as important to clean out the Communists in our government as it is to stop their expansion abroad," Wherry declared.

Brewster said it seems to him Mr. Truman has been dwelling on Communist threats in the foreign field almost to the exclusion of any similar dangers at home.

"It may be a campaign to take the people's mind off of the McCarthy charges and similar affairs," Brewster said. He is chairman of the GOP senatorial campaign committee.

Senator Hill (D-Ala.) said he doesn't see it that way at all.

"The president is properly concerned with the whole threat of Communism, at home and abroad," Hill said.

PIONEER JUDGE TO RUN

Johnstown, June 12—(P)—President Judge John H. McCann of Cambria county, who has served longer than any other common pleas judge in Pennsylvania, is going to run for a fourth term. The 71-year-old jurist was elected to his first 10-year term in 1921. He is a Democrat.

Time Growing Short to Enter Fourth Of July Celebration Queen Contest

Interest is mounting at high pitch throughout the county as to who will be chosen for the queen and her court of four to reign over all events for Warren's gigantic Fourth of July celebration.

Already the following prizes have been offered with more to be added: $50 in cash to the queen and $10 each to members of her court; banquet at Baker's Bide-A-Wee Inn; beautiful Lane cedar chest, Waxman's Furniture store; lovely barrel back chair, Blomquist Furniture shop; banquet at the Blue & White restaurant; large supply of nylon hose, J. C. Penney Co. store; airplane tour over Warren and vicinity, King Air Service; guests at Warner Brothers' Library theater; Parker pen and pencil set, Kinnear's store.

The queen will be outfitted by Betty Lee's, and the court will be outfitted by the Metzger-Wright Co. store.

Every young woman in Warren county between the ages of 17 and 21 inclusive, is urged to enter by sending in a blank, printed in each issue of this paper.

The committee in charge emphasizes that there is nothing to sell and no votes to solicit. There is nothing else required—just send in entry blank and be at the downtown drawing and selection to be held Friday evening, June 23rd at 9:15 o'clock, preceded by a band concert at 8:30.

Those in charge also call attention to the fact that this is not a contest, where contestants will be compelled to appear in bathing suits, nor will it be necessary to go to great expense in acquiring expensive gowns. This is one of the greatest and most unusual opportunities offered girls of the county, and every young woman will have an equal chance to be selected. It is not necessary for the contestant to enter her own name. Names may be submitted by individual sponsors, societies, industries, or organizations of any kind. Several entries have already been received and with less than two weeks left before the drawing it is expected that entries will be arriving in large numbers.

The committee arranging this part of the celebration is headed by L. E. Frederickson, as chairman. Others are Ardel Saylor, Robert L. Johnson, Frank Wood, H. B. Pettit and Ed Lowrey.

Republicans Ready to Douse Cold Water On Dilworth Idea for Political Debates

Harrisburg, June 12—(P)—Republicans were ready today to douse cold water on a Democrat's idea for a series of debates during the fall election campaign.

Former Judge John S. Fine, Republican gubernatorial nominee, indicated he would not accept the week-old challenge of his Democratic opponent, Richardson Dilworth.

"It's too hot to even talk about anything like that," he told a newsman. The sweltering weekend weather provided the background for his statement.

M. Harvey Taylor, elected to a sixth term as state chairman by the Republican state committee at Philadelphia Saturday, also showed a reluctance to consider the Dilworth debate proposal.

They apparently took a cue from the refusal of Gov. James H. Duff to take to the platform against Congressman John C. Kunkel, Harrisburg, in the GOP primary battle for the U. S. senatorial nomination.

Dilworth, Philadelphia city treasurer, had suggested a series of eight debates in September and October under the sponsorship of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association.

The Republican leadership was expected to formally reject the idea of the debate before the state committee meets in Pittsburgh next September.

CALIFORNIA PRIMARY

Governor Earl Warren's tremendous vote-getting performance in the California primary once more stamps him as a man with a bright future. Because he piled up nearly twice as many votes as James Roosevelt, the Democratic nominee, he must be rated a distinct favorite for reelection to a third term as governor this fall.

And if Warren does capture this prize again, he will establish himself as a big factor in the 1952 Republican presidential race, whether or not he chooses to be a candidate.

In 1952 California's huge population gains will be translated into more than half a dozen new seats in Congress, which means in turn that its delegations to party nominating conventions will be swelled by perhaps 14 to 16. It will pack almost as much weight as New York and Pennsylvania.

Should a victorious Warren decide to run for president, he would, of course, command this strength for himself and would likely have the Washington, Oregon and perhaps other western delegations in his camp as well.

Though such a beginning would be no guarantee of his nomination, it would put him in a very strong bargaining spot. Warren's voice would have to be reckoned with in the final GOP choice. This would be true, indeed, even if he controlled only his own big delegation.

A Warren triumph this November would have the same import for the Republican future as would a victory for Gov. James Duff's hand-picked successor in Pennsylvania.

Warren has been a progressive governor who must be classed with the liberal wing of his party. The same holds for Duff. Together these two could go a long way toward blocking the 1952 nomination of any man they felt did not reflect their own progressive sentiments.

Warren's primary showing thus strengthens the hand of GOP liberals continuing a trend that has been unmistakable throughout the primary balloting of 1950.

His fall opponent, Jimmy Roosevelt, will be no push-over. For a time it looked as if Warren might repeat his feat of 1946 and capture both GOP and Democratic nominations for governor—which is possible under California's cross-filing system. But Roosevelt, fortified by an intense street-corner campaign, proved too strong for that.

Roosevelt undoubtedly will wage a fall campaign with similar energy. But he will have a few handicaps. President Truman hasn't forgotten that Jimmy wanted General Eisenhower for the 1948 Democratic presidential nomination. And many leading Democrats within California are not enthusiastic over his nominee.

On top of those drawbacks is the powerful evidence of Warren's hold on Californians of both parties. The governor polled well over half a million votes on the Democratic side. Roosevelt has a big task cut out for him.

LONG TIME COMING

Americans can be thankful that at last a liberalized displaced persons measure is assured. Under legislation finally approved by Congress and considered certain of President Truman's signature, another 135,000 European DP's may be admitted to the United States.

Present law allows entry of 205,000 and we have already given haven to more than 150,000 of these. Furthermore, language in the existing law that seemed to reflect religious and racial bias has been modified.

If the president signs, new entrants to the U. S. may be selected from a broader range of national and religious groups.

The final passage of the new DP bill was a victory for the many elements in American society which wanted it. And it was a defeat for Senator McCarran of Nevada, whose blind obstructionism stalled for almost a year and a half a worthy measure that ought to have been enacted by the spring of 1949.

The Times-Mirror joins with sorrowing relatives and friends in extending sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald D. Johnson and family, 105 Cayuga avenue, in the loss of their 12-year-old son, Denny, who passed away unexpectedly at the Warren General Hospital Friday evening after a brief illness from appendicitis. Denny possessed a likeable personality that cemented friendships in every circle wherein he moved and his sudden passing comes as a profound shock, not only to those near and dear to him, but to a large circle of acquaintances.

American traffic experts have been invited to Norway this summer to take a look at a brand new traffic control gimmick being tried out in Oslo. It is a stop light regulated by pedestrians. When it was first installed for a test vehicular traffic was brought to a standstill. Walkers kept punching the button for a joke.

The Simple, Direct Method

Here And There

Today we want to congratulate our fellow townsman, business man, President of the Chamber of Commerce and general all-round good mixer, Fritz Klesha, and his Turner Radio store employees for their success in winning a recent contest staged by the Philco Company. As we understand it Klesha finished top man in all groups with 2137 points, followed by Chaffee Tire Co., Inc., of Erie, in second. They are the winners in groups "B" and "A" respectively, and we are told that is quite an achievement, for they were competing with such well known establishments as the Winter Co., Stanley Brothers Furniture, W. T. Grant Co., and others in Erie. And what does Fritz receive as a reward. Well, it all adds up to a trip to Atlantic City for the Philco convention beginning this weekend. The activities get under way next Monday night with a stupendous water carnival and beauty contest at the famous Brighton pool; Tuesday the delegates will see the greatest lines of radio and television in the industry, and will hear leaders of merchandising in appliance fields personally outline plans for the future and in the evening there will be a boxing and wrestling show in convention hall arena; Wednesday the world famous Philadelphia Mummers parade will be staged on the boardwalk for the first time in history it will last two hours, and that night there will be a gala Philco show, with dozens of great names from the theatrical world in a production equal to the greatest Broadway show ever staged. Thursday will be get-away day. Fritz will make the trip to Atlantic City aboard a special car over the Pennsylvania Railroad with other Philco dealers from the Erie district.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Senator Says Prosperity Chain No Stronger Than Farm Link

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Republican Sen. Homer E. Capehart of Indiana says the Republican Party has got to start thinking. To promote this endeavor, Senator Capehart has published a 28-page pamphlet. Its tentative title is "The Key to Sound Prosperity."

Carl H. Wilken, Sioux City, Ia. economist who now has offices in Washington, wrote the booklet. Senator Capehart is backing Mr. Wilken in his studies, but the senator makes clear that he does not put his stamp of approval on it all. Some of it he agrees with, and some of it he does not agree with. But says the Hoosier senator, "My interest is to stimulate thinking."

The Wilken economic theories will stimulate thinking, all right, but there's no telling what kind. Basis of the Wilken doctrine is that there must be a sound farm economy before there can be anything else sound.

This appeals to Senator Capehart, who was born poor, began life as a farm hand, then became a farm tenant and a big farm owner, along with his manufacturing activities. Incidentally, Senator Capehart is running for re-election this November, and has a race on his hands against Alex Campbell, former assistant attorney general.

But to get back to the Wilken thesis, he begins by a finding that "the very laws of nature and production establish capitalism as the natural form of economy." He goes on from there to state that "the failure of our capital economy to retain stability is due to price fluctuations which change the dollar value of new wealth."

Wilken's purpose, therefore, is to uncover the natural laws of exchange, which can then be used as yardsticks to make our economy work better and give us greater stability. The booklet is full of tables and charts. Much of the data—though not the conclusions—are taken from the President's Economic Report to Congress.

"A careful check of the record," writes Mr. Wilken, "will reveal that each $1 of gross farm income will generate $7 of national income." This is Mr. Wilken's "Key to Prosperity."

"Once we realize this simple, yet positive, ratio of gross farm production to national income, we can set up this dogmatic conclusion—no vital party can operate the economy of the United States on a basis of full employment and national solvency unless it is willing to stabilize our gross farm income at a level high enough to provide the national income required."

THIS sounds a little like a GOP Brannan plan, but it isn't. "The seven-times trade turn of gross farm income is in reality our efficiency ratio of per man production," insists Mr. Wilken. "It exists primarily because each average farm worker produces enough farm raw materials for himself and six other workers."

The conclusion which Mr. Wilken draws from this is that to create economic stability and protect national income from severe losses due to unnecessary drops in price levels, the country should stabilize the prices of non-perishable farm crops.

"The price of our basic non-perishable crops should be stabilized at parity with the value of an ounce of gold, the yardstick for our monetary measuring in world trade," says Mr. Wilken. "Such a step would stabilize our price level for commodities at 169 per cent of the 1925 to 1929 period, or the same relationship between gold and commodities during that period."

"To stabilize the basic raw materials from our agricultural production is not price-fixing in any sense of the word," insists Mr. Wilken. "It is in reality regulating the value of the dollar as provided in the Constitution."

He doesn't say where in the Constitution it says that.

Name Chosen For New Industry To Start In Sheffield

Sheffield, June 12—The Forest Furniture company is the name chosen by Albert and Emil Ristau for the furniture company they are starting in the former Central Pennsylvania Lumber company plant in Mill street. The name of Forest was chosen as the plant is situated in Sheffield which is in the heart of the Allegheny National Forest.

The two men purchased the plant recently from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation which in turn had purchased it at a sheriff's sale of the bankrupt Para Equipment company which had the property after the CPL went down.

Both Ristaus, well-known in furniture manufacturing circles, hope to have production started in the manufacture of furniture, probably bedroom furniture, by the end of August or early in September.

They are busy now getting the plant in readiness and obtaining the necessary tools and machinery. Installation of a new boiler and then construction of a new stack will be started sometime this week.

Wednesday evening, from 5 to 8 p. m. is the new date set for the country fair scheduled for last Saturday by Cub Pack 35 but which had to be postponed because of rainy weather. In case of rain Wednesday, the country fair will be held Thursday night from 5 to 8 at the Memorial playground.

Gleason, who had moved for immediate transfer of Gold to Brooklyn, said he had no objection to delay at this time but asked McGraney to fix a definite time when the judge will act on the removal warrant.

Hamilton, at this point, stepped before the bench and said "I will not delay unduly my examination of the defendant and will advise the court as soon as I have completed it."

The judge answered: "I'm sure of it."

That ended the hearing. Gold, handcuffed and escorted by the U. S. marshal and three of his deputies, was brought into the courtroom. The handcuffs were removed after McGraney appeared and court was called to order.

Joyce Romaine Raisor Becomes Bride Of Harold Meyer In Lutheran Church

Baskets of white and yellow glads were used to decorate the altar of Holy Redeemer church for the Saturday morning wedding of Joyce Romaine Raisor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Raisor, 31 Marter street, and Harold Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Meyer, of Sugar Grove. Father M. E. Dalley read the marriage service and celebrated the nine o'clock nuptial mass. Mrs. Thomas Donnelly was at the organ and the soloist, Jackie Smith, North Warren, used as her numbers "Panis Angelicus", Mother, At Your Feet Is Kneeling" and "On This Day, O. Beautiful Mother."

The bridal gown of traditional white satin was hand made, with beautifully detailed net-inset yoke, and a satin headpiece held her fingertip veil. Lily of the valley streamers showered her white prayer book.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by Patricia Yaggle, Warren, as maid of honor; Patricia Meyer, Sugar Grove, and Theresa Nuhfer, bridesmaid. Their gowns of net over taffeta were all styled alike. Miss Yaggle in orchid, Miss Meyer wearing yellow and Miss Nuhfer in blue. Headpieces matched their frocks and were decorated with tiers of white daisies to correspond with their bouquets.

Best man was Gene Sanden, Jamestown, N. Y., with William Lyon, Russell, and Ashley Brant, Kinross, as ushers.

Mrs. Raisor wore a two piece dress suit of silver gray and Mrs. Meyer chose navy blue silk for the wedding.

Guests from Wabash, Ind., Cleveland, Jamestown, Erie, Youngsville, Bradford, Russell, Kinross, Sugar Grove, Chancellors Valley and Warren were included in the 200 attending the reception held from two until four o'clock at the Raisor home. The white daisy motif was repeated in the bride's table appointments, where bouquets flanked the three-tiered wedding cake served by Mrs. Norman Raisor. Mrs. Charles Arnold was at the coffee urn and aides were Mrs. Alice Baldwin and Mrs. Lester Cook.

For a honeymoon to an unannounced destination, the bride chose a navy silk frock, accented with white waffle pique, navy accessories with white trim, and a corsage of lilies of the valley. They will live in Sugar Grove. The bride is a graduate of Warren High School and has been employed by the New Process Company; the bridegroom, alumnus of Lander High, has employment with the Green Bros. Lumber Company in Ashville, N. Y.

Honoring the bride-elect have been Mrs. Charles Arnold; Theresa Nuhfer and Pat Yaggle; Mrs. Raymond Schneider, Jackie Smith and Margaret Mathyer; the NPC addressing department.

Mary L. Carr and Walter Moore, Jr. Wed In Youngsville

At 2:30 p. m. Saturday in Youngsville Free Methodist church, the Rev. Dewey Yale, of Spencerville, Md., united in marriage Mary L. Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Carr, Youngsville, and Walter N. Moore, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Moore, Sr., of Coudersport.

For the wedding music, a mixed quartet played the Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" and Alice Gates sang "Because".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose traditional white satin and wore with it a fingertip veil. Her sister and only attendant, Mrs. Harold Wilson, was gowned in yellow.

Richard Moore, Coudersport, was his brother's best man.

A three-tiered wedding cake featured the bride's table for the reception which followed immediately at the Carr home. Guests included Mrs. Nellie McGee, Punksutawney; Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Sr., and family, Coudersport; Rev. and Mrs. Yale, Spencerville; with friends from Coudersport and other out of town relatives.

The couple will be at home after June 10 at Coudersport. For honeymooning, the bride chose a navy blue suit-dress, accented with white trim.

Historic Stone Church Scene of Rite Uniting Louise Johnson-Norris Hooven

MR. AND MRS. NORRIS S. HOOVEN

A. Louise Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson, Irvine, an English teacher on the faculty of Beaty Junior High School, was united in marriage Saturday with Norris S. Hooven, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hooven, Youngsville.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. William J. Prout at 3:30 p. m. in the historic little stone Presbyterian church in Irvine, for many years the chapel of the General William Irvine family and more than 100 years old. New hemlock and white peonies banked the altar, while deep-niched windows were decorated with white hawthorne blossoms, summer chrysanthemums and pink snapdragons.

While guests assembled, Mrs. Carl Munson played a half-hour piano recital: "White Orchids", "At Dawning", "O Promise Me", "Evening Star", "O Perfect Love", "Because" and "Venetian Love Song". The vocalist, Nancy Armistage Johnson, sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a fitted gown with high illusion neckline and long, tapering sleeves in the Chantilly lace bodice, full skirt of marquisette over net, and full length train. Matching lace trimmed her veil, which fell fingertip length from a seed pearl tiara, and she carried lilies of the valley. Her pearls were the bridegroom's gift.

Theresa Crull, of Irvine, as her only attendant wore aqua faille fashioned with bertha neckline, a bustle, and full skirt. Mitts were of matching material and aqua net trimmed her white horsehair picture hat. Her flowers were a spray of pink orchids and cymbidium.

Mothers of the principals wore sheer frocks, with white accessories and pink carnation corsages. Mrs. Johnson in navy, Mrs. Hooven in powder blue.

The best man was Lyle Weaver, of Monongahela City, and ushers were David and Donald Johnson, twin brothers of the bride.

For the reception, held for 150 guests at the National Forge clubhouse from four until six, decorations repeated the wild flower motif used at the church and mixed white flowers centered the serving table. Presiding were Theresa Crull, of Irvine, and Audrey Cramer.

PRIMARY CONCERN OF EVERY CITIZEN

How best to meet the needs of all dependent and neglected children in Warren County is the primary concern of every citizen and particularly those who work in the field of child care, both public and private.

In a preceding article, it was shown how the Children's Aid Society, one of the private agencies of Warren County, seeks to meet the children's needs through careful planning and supervision.

However, a comprehensive program to meet these needs demands that the private agency work closely with public agencies, such as the County Institution District, which has financial responsibility for dependent and neglected children; the Department of Public Assistance, which has financial responsibility for dependent families; and the Juvenile Court.

Perhaps the best way to define the difference between a public and private agency, and to show that both are necessary is to say that the public agency, supported by tax funds, could be compared to the melody of the song, while the private agency, supported by private contributions, is the orchestration, the harmony of the song.

Both melody and harmony are essential to a good song, just as both the basic, widespread services of the public agency and the specialized, individual services of the private agency are essential to a good program of child care. The two types of agencies complement and supplement each other, offering services which may at times seem similar, at times quite different, but always with the same goal of serving children in whatever way is needed.

Many people in our community think that the Hoffman Children's Home is a part of the Children's Aid Society program but in reality it has been the property of the County Institution District since March 26, 1931, when it was purchased by the County Commissioners with funds left for that purpose by Otis F. Hoffman.

The co-operation between the public and private agencies is already an accomplished fact in Warren County. Now the understanding and united thinking of all citizens is necessary to carry forward the work so vital to the community.

All-White Bridal Saturday Evening For Alice Marie Munksgard-A. K. Hotchkiss

Wearing white satin and lace, Alice Marie Munksgard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Munksgard, of Irvine, became the bride of Arthur K. Hotchkiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hotchkiss, 53 Center street, Randolph, N. Y., in a candlelight ceremony performed at 8 p. m. Saturday in First Lutheran church, Warren.

Rev. Edward K. Rogers read the service before an altar decorated with palms and a fan-shaped bouquet of summer flowers. Mrs. Dorothy Engstrom was at the organ for traditional wedding music and as accompanist for Lillian Ristau, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Wedding Benediction."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by her sister, Mrs. Verna Waters, of Irvine, as matron of honor; Theresa Crull, Irvine, and Mildred Withington, Youngville, bridesmaids.

Her gown was styled with flared skirt, and a high, rounded neckline in the fitted bodice. Sleeves were long and tapered over the hands. Attendants were all gowned in white lace and net, with matching mitts and flower and net headbands which matched their colonial bouquets.

Completing the bridal party were Robert Wright, Falconer, N. Y., who served his brother as best man; and the following ushers: Harold Pedersen, Warren RD; Jack and William Abplanalp, Irvine, and Chester Munksgard, Warren.

Mrs. Munksgard chose for her daughter's wedding an aqua street frock, with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The reception followed at 8:30 o'clock in the church parlors, with 150 guests from Clamport, Del.; Akron, O.; Jamestown, Celoron, Randolph, Kennedy, Falconer, N. Y.; Jersey City, N. J.; Litchfield, Conn.; Warren, Youngville, Erie and Bradford. The bride's table was centered with a beautiful four-tier cake, encircled by carnations.

Upon their return from a honeymoon in the Thousand Islands region, the newlyweds will reside in Jamestown. For travel, the bride selected a navy dress, white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bride, a registered nurse, was educated in Irvine and Warren schools and was graduated from the WCA Hospital School of Nursing in Jamestown. Honoring her with parties have been Mrs. Kenneth Christell and Mrs. George Wheeler; Mrs. Herbert Lundmark and Mrs. John Berdine; Theresa Crull; with the rehearsal dinner given by her sister, Mrs. Waters.

Mr. Hotchkiss was educated in Randolph schools.

CHILDREN'S AID BOARD

The monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society board of directors will be held in the office of the society at ten o'clock Tuesday morning.

Vows Taken In St. Luke's Church By Delores Mariner and Richard Brown

Iris and glads, in yellow and white were used in a simple decoration of St. Luke's church at Irvine Saturday, when Father Edward Jacobs performed the 2:30 p. m. ceremony which united in marriage Delores Mariner and Richard Brown, both of Youngville.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Gwendolyn Mariner and the late William L. Mariner and Mr. Brown is the son of Mrs. Roy Hall, of Panama, N. Y.

Donald Aberg, with Mrs. John Papalia as his accompanist and both of Youngville, sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother."

Choosing a street length model of white organdy over taffeta, the bride had a shoulder length veil, falling from a matching headband, and wore as her only jewelry the bridegroom's gift of a double strand of pearls. White roses topped her prayer book.

Mrs. Robert Gentz, Youngville, as her matron of honor and only attendant, wore green marquisette over taffeta, with white accessories and a nosegay of yellow roses.

Miner Swanson was best man for Mr. Brown and ushers were Clair Richard and Thomas Inter, of Youngville.

Mrs. Mariner chose a navy frock, with navy and white accessories and pink rose corsage, while Mrs. Hall wore black accessories and yellow roses with an aqua print.

The reception followed immediately at the bride's home, with 175 guests from Jamestown, Panama, Celoron, N. Y.; Elyria and Cleveland, O.; Warren, Corry and Erie. Mrs. Kenneth Johnson and Mrs. John Papalia presided at the bride's table, which was centered with a five-tier cake, candles and yellow iris, and Mrs. Vic Schnell served the cake.

Following a wedding trip into upper New York state, the newlyweds will reside at 117½ West Main street, Youngville. For traveling, Mrs. Brown selected a yellow suit, with which she wore dark green accessories and a white rose corsage.

Honoring the bride-elect with parties have been Mrs. John Papalia and Mrs. Roger Luvison; Mrs. Margie Finlan; Mrs. Kenneth Johnson and Mrs. Vic Schnell; Mrs. Richard Munch and Emily Corbett; Mrs. Roy Hall; Mrs. Dominic Matteo and Mrs. Mike Natale.

MOST fathers prefer chocolate cake. So bake one for Father's Day. But make it a regal affair—put a gold paper crown on top with "King for a Day" printed boldly across the crown. He'll feel like a big shot—the way he should be made to feel on his special day. The cake can be an easy business if you use a new devil's food mix. Just add milk, beat and bake, and your downy-textured cake is ready for the oven, in a big square pan or two eight-inch layers.

Frost the cake with a quick white frosting, or with a rich chocolate eggnog frosting flavored with rum extract; then border the cake with a crown of maraschino cherries and points of pineapple.

Chocolate Eggnog Frosting
Melt three squares unsweetened chocolate in double boiler. Remove from boiling water; add 1½ cups sifted confectioners' sugar and 2 tablespoons hot water and blend. Add one egg, slightly beaten, in two parts, beating well after each addition. Then add 4 tablespoons softened butter, a tablespoon at a time, beating thoroughly after each amount. Add ¼ teaspoon rum extract and blend.

Four-Minute Frosting
Combine one unbeaten egg white, ¾ cup sugar, dash of salt,

Lincoln School Picnic To Be Annual Affair

About 175 persons attended the Lincoln school picnic at Clarendon Heights, when a variety of turkeys was enjoyed and guests were seated at long tables placed on the spacious school lawn.

Mrs. Edward Heasley, PTA president, was general chairman for the affair, with Mrs. Jack Decker head of the refreshments group; Mrs. Clarence Hendrickson chairman of games for the children; Mr. Heasley, head of the tables committee.

After considering the excellent turnout and good time enjoyed by all in attendance, it was decided to make the picnic an annual affair.

GIRL SCOUT OUTING

Girl Scout Troop 24 of Clarendon Heights, with Mrs. Jack Decker as leader and Mrs. Clarence Hendrickson as assistant, enjoyed a very pleasant turkey dinner at the National Forge clubhouse at Irvine.

After the serving, second class badges were awarded to Bonnie Fitzgerald, Emily Ristau and Lesley K. Decker; first class awards badges and pins to Joyce Perry, Marilyn Vesting, Gloria Peterson.

YOUNGVILLE CLASS IS REHEARSING DRAMA

The BIC Class of married couples of Youngville Evangelical United Brethren church is rehearsing for a drama which is to be presented in the church Tuesday evening, June 20.

"He Came Seeing" is the title of the work, written by Mary P. Hamlin. The cast of characters has been well chosen and the presentation promises to be an outstanding event in the church calendar for this month. Mrs. Harold V. Lindquist will be the director.

An invitation is extended to all in the community and nearby places to plan to be in attendance.

JOYCE ERICKSON PLANS OPEN CHURCH

Margaret Joyce Erickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Erickson, 8 Dahl street, will observe open church on Saturday, June 17, when she becomes the bride of Chester Lawrence Christensen, of Warren, son of Martin Christensen, Rochester, N. Y., formerly of North Warren. The ceremony will be performed in Grace Methodist church at three o'clock.

Mrs. Sweeting Given 80th Birthday Party

Mrs. Myrtle Sweeting, East Fifth avenue extension, was the honored guest for a happy gathering of old friends and neighbors on the occasion of her 80th birthday anniversary. About 30 guests were in attendance.

Refreshments were served from a table centered with a beautiful heart-shaped birthday cake made by Mrs. Julia Seely and bearing three candles in representation of Faith, Hope and Love. With Mrs. Harry Nuhler at the piano, all joined in singing "Happy Birthday" as Mrs. Sweeting was escorted to the place of honor.

A very enjoyable afternoon passed all too quickly as visitors joined in wishing their honored guest many more happy birthday anniversaries.

Courtesy Is Admirable, Men,
But Don't Forget Your Wives

ONE of the most frequent complaints I get about husbands is that they go out of their way to be courteous to any woman but their wives.

The latest wife to make this complaint writes: "My husband will sit and watch me struggle to move a heavy piece of furniture without moving a muscle, but he'll jump out of his chair to light any other woman's cigaret."

"It burns me up—and what I'd like to know is this: Am I expecting too much when I think he should treat me with the same courtesy he offers other women? Or are all husbands more or less guilty of this same kind of thoughtlessness where their wives are concerned?"

Judging from my mail a number of husbands make this same mistake. And a big mistake it is, too.

For women set great store by the little attentions men give them. And when a woman sees her husband remembering his manners for any woman but her, she is naturally put out about it.

TRY THIS TEST FOR HUSBANDS

ANY husband who has this column handed to him by his wife hasn't any comeback unless he can get a nearly perfect score on the following questions:

Do you open car doors for your wife?
Do you seat her at the dinner table?
Do you say "Let me do that" when she starts to move a piece of furniture or lift something you would think too heavy for another woman to manage alone?
Do you light her cigarets when you are jumping to light those of a woman guest?
Do you help her when she asks your help without grumbling?
If you can't pass that test, your wife has reason to think you are lacking in ordinary courtesy.
After all, if you'd flunked it before marriage she probably wouldn't have rated you as a gentleman.

YES MANAGER

My job is to make loans to local people. I like to say YES and do say YES to 4 out of 5 who come to me for a loan. Yet I can't help feeling that my most important job is getting people out of debt—selling fresh starts.

Take the young couple who came to see me only last week. The husband was making good money. Yet they couldn't seem to make ends meet. They wanted a loan of $50 until payday.

With their permission, I went over their income and expenses on a worksheet* my company has just published. In 10 minutes, we'd spotted the trouble. Their monthly installment payments were just too high. After meeting them, they didn't have enough money to handle their regular monthly expenses. I lent them the cash to pay these accounts in full. Now they're repaying me—in monthly amounts that fit their income. They are happy with their fresh start.

Now I don't claim a loan is always the answer to a money problem. When it is, I say "yes" promptly. You also get the benefit of my years of experience with family budgets. If you can use either money or this free counsel, don't hesitate to see me. Come in to the Personal Finance Co.—or phone, today.

FUN IN A WHEEL CHAIR—These handicapped students from Morton High School in Chicago had as much fun as any other children on a day-long outing and picnic sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. Police and firemen went along to help supervise.

FAREWELL FROM NUMBER 4003—Dr. John W. Lauck, 75, of Maple Hill, Kans., retiring after 52 years of rural medical practice, gets a farewell smile from three-month-old Cheryl Marie Oliver, the 4003rd and last baby he delivered. Holding the baby is her mother, Mrs. Robert Oliver. Friends and patients held a giant farewell party honoring the doctor on his retirement.

FLAMING CROSS IN THE FLORIDA PINES—A giant cross burns under the pines near Jacksonville, Fla., as members of the Ku Klux Klan hold their first open meeting in the area in many years. The white-hooded figures went through their mystic ritual just outside the city limits.

BOY FACES MURDER CHARGE—Policemen keep a close watch on Stanley Oppenshaw, 17, and his mother, Mrs. Anna Oppenshaw, 44, after their capture in Hoboken, N. J. Mrs. Oppenshaw reportedly said she went in hiding with her son, who was sought by police in 13 states in connection with the shooting of his father, Martin, 71, a wealthy exporter, on a park bench in the Bronx. N. Y. Stanley, a former mental patient, will face a murder charge when returned to New York.

LIMBLESS HERO WEDS—James W. Wilson, one of two World War II heroes who survived after losing all four limbs, and his bride, the former Dorothy Darlene Mortenson, 23, cut their wedding cake after being married at Jacksonville, Fla. His 22-year-old bride was a television model.

WAITING FOR A GREEN LIGHT—The Rev. Meyer Imperiale of Melrose, Mass., is an ordained minister waiting for a call that will give him a permanent pastorate. Marshal's paddy-wagon to be carted off to District of Columbia jail. For their offense, contempt of Congress, they were sentenced to a year's imprisonment and a $1000 fine.

TWO IN THE BUSH'S—Mrs. R. M. Bush of Atlanta, Ga., gingerly removes the mail from her sidewalk mailbox, careful not to disturb Momma Bluebird, who is housekeeping inside. The Bluebirds are the fourth couple to move in and raise a family in the same location. It's okay with the Bushes as long as Mr. and Mrs. Bluebird leave their mail alone.

WINS HUGE SETTLEMENT—Mrs. Ruby Dickey Bartges, 44, above, a waitress in Tucson, Ariz., won a $1,575,000 judgment in a Denver divorce settlement from her first husband, the late George P. Dickey, wealthy oilman. Mrs. Bartges' attorneys said she was working trying to pay huge debts incurred by her second husband, now serving a three-year-term for larceny in Arizona state penitentiary.

LEAVES EDEN—When told that Anthony Eden, Britain's dapper wartime foreign minister, was granted a divorce in London on grounds of desertion, Mrs. Beatrice Eden replied with a "so what!" Mrs. Eden, who said she has no plans for remarriage, entered the U. S. under the British immigration quota and has been living in New York for two years.

CHICKS' BEST FRIEND—Rex, a seven-year-old St. Bernard at St. Scholastica Convent, Chicago, spends all his time riding herd on the institution's 300 chickens. His job is to see that none of them leave the grounds. He's been doing it ever since they were baby chicks.

KEEPING TRACK OF THE TRACTOR—The newest Ford tractors now come off the Detroit, Mich., assembly lines equipped with the "Proof-Meter" (see inset), an instrument that takes the guesswork out of tractor operation. The multiple meter shows engine speed, tractor speed, power take-off speed, belt pulley speed and total hours worked by tractor. By careful bookkeeping a farmer can use these data to figure his costs.

Old-Timers Limber Up for Big Games

Former big-name baseball players in the Warren area are limbering up with three-to-five-minute practice sessions these days for the annual two-game Oldtimers Series.

First of the games will be played in the Jamestown Municipal Stadium on Sunday, July 16, at 2 o'clock under the auspices of the Jamestown Kiwanis Club. The Warren county all-stars will be paired against the has-beens from Jamestown.

Then on Saturday, July 29, the same two teams—or those players who are still able—will meet again in Memorial Field in Warren under the auspices of the Warren Kiwanians.

For those who actually want to see a "little" baseball and not so much of a slow-walking race, there will be a five-inning clash between a Jamestown Boys' team and an all-star squad from Warren's Hot Stove League.

★ THE SCOREBOARD ★ Phillies' Hamner Now Called Slickest Shortstop in N. L.

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Granville Hamner of the Phillies has taken his place among the great shortstops.

A number of schooled observers now rank the young man Ben Chapman plucked off the Richmond, Va., sandlots as the slickest in the National League.

Hamner has the arm scouts everlastingly seek.

What kills the other side is its accuracy," comments Leo Durocher. Hamner, an instinctive ballplayer, is at his best on relays and cut-off plays.

He wheels and gets the ball away unerringly with one motion, knows where the plate or bag is without looking.

Philadelphia got the second baseman to go with Hamner when Mike Goliat started playing ball for the first time after coming out of the Army. It was much better than being a mine boy hard by his native Yatesboro, Pa.

And you can't beat the hours, even if you have to stay up all night to play professional baseball these days.

Hamner and Mike Goliat did not get together until the latter was called in from Toronto with two-thirds of last season gone, but they hit it off like Joe DiMaggio and Toots Shor from taw. They have been inseparable since, roommates on the road. Hamner named his baby daughter, Michele, after Michael.

YOUNG Bob Carpenter's outfit has considerably more than Hamner and Goliat and pitching.

The surprising Blue Jays have speed and a Murderers' Row after all these years. After Speed Boy Ashburn and Hamner in the batting order, Eddie Sawyer torments pitchers with Waitkus, 321; Ennis, 306; Jones, 307, and Sisler, 360.

Puddin'head Jones and Dick Sisler are in the first seven in home runs, and Del Ennis accompanied them in the big five of runs-batted-in when he went out with a pulled muscle in his leg.

Manager Sawyer had a sustained attack when he put Sisler in left field.

After punch-hitter and lead-off man Ashburn, the Phillies have a long ball threat all the way down to the pitcher.

Catcher Andy Seminick manufactured 24 home runs in 109 games last trip. The gigantic Stan Lopata smacks the sphere a fair piece. The firm of Hamner and Goliat, so reliable and skillful in the field, are more formidable at the plate with men on base, the mark of a good hitter.

Warren Merchants Battle Sons Of Italy For Sunset Loop Lead

Warren Merchants and the Sons of Italy tangle tonight at 6:30 o'clock at King field in a battle for top rung on the Sunset Baseball League ladder. Each team is sporting a record of five wins against 1 defeat.

Other Sunset League games tonight will pair Suppa Studebakers against Hammond Iron at War Memorial field, and Tiona against the Conewango Township Merchants at the State Hospital field.

The Warren Merchants will be out to avenge a 16-2 pasting handed them by the Sons of Italy earlier in the season. Both clubs will be at full strength and will go all out to win this crucial game. The Sons of Italy suffered their lone setback at the hands of Suppa Studebakers.

The Warren Merchants will send either Dave Lopez or Don Gheres to the mound. They both have 2 and 0 records in Sunset play. The Sons of Italy will start with either Jack Baker, (1-0) who holds one victory over the Meres, or Paul Smith (2-1).

Hot Stove Junior League competition tomorrow evening will include these games, all starting at 6:30 o'clock: Anner Garage at Glade A. C. Memorial field; Faldales at Clarendon, Clarendon field; Keystone Garage at Starbrick, Starbrick field; and Youngsville Legion at Sylvania, King field.

National Forge Trims the Oilers For Third Win In Four Starts

National Forge baseballers chalked up their third win in four starts Sunday afternoon by trimming the St. Marys Oilers, 13 to 3, at St. Marys.

The Forge's scheduled game with James City at the State Hospital diamond on Saturday afternoon was rained out.

Keith Vesling went all the way on the mound for the N. F. O. and aided his own cause with a home run. Castagnino and Gerry Vesling each had three hits for the winners, Vesling being credited with a single, a double and a triple.

Eckert hit Vesling's first pitch over the left field fence, but the Forge chucker settled down and fanned seven batters.

Summary:

St. Marys 200 001 010—3 8 4
Batteries: K. Vesling and Nobles; Stranberg, L. Bauer in the 8th and Herzog.

Two-base hits—G. Vesling, No-toro, Castagnino (Forge), Strand-berg (St. M.).
Three-base hit—G. Vesling.
Home runs—K. Vesling (F), Eckert (St. M.).

SEVEN POINTS OF THE WONDERFUL BUICK RIDE

1. Buick's smoothness starts with this husky waveproof frame.
2. A stout torque-tube serves like the keel of a battleship to steady the whole car.
3. Gentle coil springs, the softest type men know, let each wheel "slap over" bumps individually, just as only the front wheels do on most other cars.
4. Low-pressure tires, mounted on Buick's own Safety-Ride rims, give firm traction, soft cushioning, less "heel-over" on curves.
5. Quick-action shock absorbers snub after-bounce promptly when you hit a bad bump.
6. Even the special way the engine is mounted betters the ride by preventing vibration build-up.
7. Dynaflow Drive* adds a crowning touch of silky smoothness by eliminating the check and jerk of gearshifting and by filtering the engine's thrust through a cushion of oil.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT
This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.

Phalanx Tops Hi-Y In Softball League

The Phalanx, softball team, topped out 16 runs in the Church-YMCA League Friday night to hand the Hi-Y squad a 16 to 2 defeat. A 12 run rally in the first inning set the winners on their way.

For Phalanx it was 16 runs, 23 hits, and no errors, while the Hi-Y had two runs, six hits, and three errors.

L. Albaugh went all the way on the mound for the victors, while John Daley relieved Papalia in the first inning to finish out the game.

Bill Lord and Jack Updegraff, Phalanx, wielded the big sticks of the game with four for four averages.

Tonight the Phalanx will meet the First Methodist on the Beatty School field and the Lutherans will battle it out with the Grace Methodist on the Municipal field. Game time is at 6:15 o'clock.

NEW IDEA IN TANK TRANSPORT

The task of moving a bulky 3,800,000-gallon storage tank to a new location didn't faze one oil company. A bulldozer scooped out a ditch 1,000 feet long and two feet deep. Water from a nearby pond was pumped into a miniature canal. The tank was floated to its new site.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

FINESSE GUESS CAN BE MENTAL WORKOUT

By OSWALD JACOBY

(Written for NEA Service)

"When this hand was played in a rubber bridge game at our club recently," writes a Richmond fan, "declarer took a long time out for thought at one point. This puzzled me, as I shall soon explain."

"West opened the king of spades, and South won with the ace. South then drew two rounds of trumps. West discarding a low spade. South continued with a third round of trumps, and West discarded another spade. East discarded the deuce of diamonds."

"Declarer cashed the top clubs and led his remaining spade. West won with the jack of spades, and led back the queen of spades. East discarded a club on the third round of spades.

"After South had ruffed the third round of spades, he led the rest of his trumps. Both defenders discarded their clubs on these tricks. At this point it was

"This particular player does not put on an act when he plays bridge, but on this occasion he sat and thought for three and a half minutes before making a play. It seemed like a year!"

"What can a player find to think about in all that time?"

If East is a poor player, there is no problem. His discard of the deuce of diamonds should indicate that he does not hold the queen of that suit.

If East is a good player, he might discard the deuce of diamonds if he thinks that South considers him a poor player.

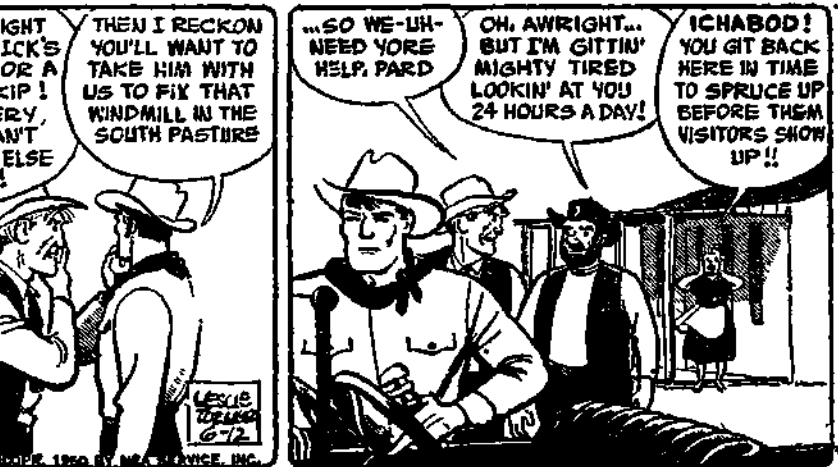

If South and East know each other to be good players, East would not discard a diamond no matter what he held. It is obvious that a club discard must be safe, so South would know that a diamond discard meant monkey business. He would probably see quite clearly that East actually held the queen of diamonds and was trying

Income of Nation's General Hospitals Fail to Meet Expenses, Report Shows

Chicago—It cost general hospitals an average of $14.33 to take care of a patient for one day during 1949. This figure is up from the $13.09 it cost in 1948 and $11.09 in 1947.

This was announced today by the American Hospital Association in its annual survey of over 6,000 hospitals in the United States, for the year ending September 30, 1949. The survey is published in the June issue of "Hospitals," official Association journal.

The income of the nation's general hospitals as a whole came nearer meeting costs of care provided than in 1948. Yet the income per patient in all hospitals was $2.59 a day less than it cost the average hospital to care for him, the survey shows.

Patients in short term non-profit hospitals paid $138,129,000 less than the hospitals' expenses, the American Hospital Association reports. This deficit amounted to $1.56 for each patient daily. Money to pay for this came from sources other than patients. Some of these sources were endowments, contributions, and payments by governments for care of people who couldn't pay.

Hospitals' expenditures were up half a billion dollars in 1949 over 1948, to a new high of $3,500,000,000, according to the American Hospital Association survey.

Almost 18,000,000 Americans were hospital patients during the year—one in eight, the survey shows. This was just a million more patients than in the previous year.

Patients didn't stay in general hospitals as long in 1949 as in 1948. The average stay was 8.3 days, or almost a half day less. This was due in part to improvements in medical and hospital care. Because they recovered more quickly, patients can be said to have saved 617,109 days in the hospital, the Association said. At an average $14.33 per day, this would amount to a saving of nearly $8,000,000 to the nation's pocket-book.

More hospital employees were there to care for patients during 1949 too, the survey found. For each 100 patients, short term hospitals (except Federal hospitals) had 169 employees. This was seven more per 100 patients than in 1948. The increase in employees was influenced by the trend to a shorter work week for hospital personnel, and to other continuing improvements in patient care and service.

Total "book value" of American hospitals was almost $7,000,000,000 in September, 1949, a half billion dollars more than in 1948. This amounted to an average investment of $4500 per bed, the American Hospital Association states. In short term hospitals (except Federal), each bed represents an average investment of $8,255. This is $410 over the 1948 estimated investment. New hospitals and additions built during the year cost many thousands more than $8,255 per bed.

"Hospitals' healthier financial condition during 1949 was reached in a period when many more patients were cared for, and they more nearly paid the cost of that care," said George Bugbee, executive director of the American Hospital Association. "Blue Cross and private insurance helped meet the costs of care for many patients."

"We believe that the progress made in hospital planning by the states together with aid provided areas needing hospital facilities, through the Hospital Survey and Construction Act, will continue to be an important step in providing a better distribution of high quality hospital care throughout the country," Mr. Bugbee said.
